CAREER SUMMARY

Noah brings exceptional sales experience, energy and determination to his position with Grubb & Ellis|Northco. He has been influenced by his family's real estate activities for his entire life and the years of exposure to the Twin Cities market has given him a well-informed perspective. Over the years Noah has been involved in numerous complex commercial transactions and services pertaining to land development, lakeshore property, investment property, property management and construction management.

Most recently, Noah worked with Coldwell Banker for three years where he developed strong client relationship skills and market knowledge. His experience in both residential and commercial real estate has provided him exposure to the extensive research and other resources available in the state of Minnesota. Noah's attention to detail and enthusiasm for the industry will not go unnoticed.
